

Marla Diann

STAND FOR YOUR WORTH & DIGNITY

Bio 2017-2018

Marla Diann is a success coach for creative professionals and entrepreneurs who are committed to upgrading to the next level of life and business emotionally, mentally, financially and spiritually.

The NEW Renaissance Woman brand speaks to visionary, thought leader women. It resonates with the change women are craving...out of overwhelm and masculine energy into feminine power of intuition, joy, fulfillment, letting go and legacy.

As an international coach, Marla lives the laptop lifestyle traveling a few times a year producing women's empowerment retreats in Italy, France and more countries to come.

Her ideal clients are women and men in business for 2-10 + years ready and committed to investing in their success with their time, emotion, and money. They realize there is a more dignified way to express their talents operating a business or running a department as a VIP executive.

She brings over 30 years of entertainment PR, branding, personal growth, professional development, mentoring, coaching, and philanthropy to her relationships.

She is the owner of her nine-year-old mentoring company and former owner for 13 years of an entertainment PR agency. She thrives as a visionary, mother, entrepreneur, writer, mentor and philanthropist for over three decades. Marla integrates her 22 years of entertainment publicity, storytelling, and branding expertise with her love of human potential and entrepreneurship to create lasting change and success for her creative business owners and professional clients.

Marla guides her entrepreneur clients to identify and implement success habits, new behaviors, new mindset, and a transformed, healed relationship with money.

All of this results in a leveraged business and a clearer path to higher, more consistent revenues without compromising their health, well-being, dignity, family or values.

She holds a Bachelor of Liberal Arts & Sciences degree in PR Journalism from San Diego State University. She is a graduate of Tony Robbins Mastery University and a deeply proud Mom of her 26-year-old amazing son. She loves all things Disney, creative, spiritual, inspirational, humanitarian, nature and outdoors.

Please download her free audio "Are you wired for wealth?" at www.marladiann.com/start

Read her transformational personal story inspired by her month long trip to Florence, Italy - <http://marladiann.com/personal-story-journey-new-normal/>

www.marladiann.com