Bio 2021

The New Renaissance Woman

Marla Diann is an international success coach and business strategist for high achieving creative entrepreneurs and professionals who are ready to upgrade to the next level of life and business financially, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually.

Celebrating 25 years as a creative entrepreneur and 13 years in her coaching business, the Marla Diann Mentoring International brand attracts women and men visionaries and thought leaders seeking to be change-makers in their industries.

Her spiritual and lifestyle coaching clients seek adventure, more play, more fun, and more creativity in their life. They desire clarity in their life purpose, leadership abilities, and spiritual growth for higher impact living.

She brings over 30+ years of entertainment PR & talent management, entrepreneurship, personal branding, mentoring, coaching, personal and professional development, and women/young girls philanthropy to her relationships.

Creative renewal and transformation in your money relationship come as a brilliant wake-up call woven into her teachings.

Her ideal clients are creative women and men in business for 2-20 + years ready and committed to investing in their success. In their current status, they seek a more innovative, intuitive, and progressive way to make an impact while monetizing the joy of working more often in their genius zone resulting in higher revenues.

Marla guides her entrepreneur clients to identify and implement new success habits, a renewed creativity, develop a leveraged business model supported by a qualifying sales system, a discovery of their genius zone for more fulfillment, and a transformed relationship with money (wealth consciousness) for dignity and self-worth.

Her new lifestyle division currently in development will take clients through Marla's signature Enlightened Reinvention Method™ that helps women and men how to use the intuitive route to change rather than the linear, logical approach. Included in these teachings will be how to apply Marla's transformational travel method via her workshop, "How to plan, schedule, live and work in Italy for a month-long stay."

Marla holds a Bachelor of Liberal Arts & Sciences degree in PR Journalism from San Diego State University. She is a graduate of Tony Robbins Mastery University. She is a proud member of The Divine Living Community with her mentor Gina DeVee and 7-year member of Association of Bridal Consultants (ABC). She is a 7-year member of eWomenNetwork.

Her certified status as a Money Breakthrough Method™ and Sacred Money Archetype™ coach has given her the platform to change lives and create a new money legacy (habits, behaviors, mindset) since 2010.

Marla is a proud Mama of her 30-year-old son who has his own successful real estate investing business. She lives in Palos Verdes Estates, Calif. with her sweet dog Mojo, and loves all things Italian, Disney, creative, romance, spiritual, inspirational, humanitarian, nature and outdoors.
